Be Unforgettable and Happier in Engineering

LEAD WITH FEMININITY, GRACE, AND PRESENCE

ERYKA T. JOHNSON

A 20-year Mechanical Engineering Associate at ExxonMobil, is solving global energy challenges through the design of static equipment and deployment of cutting-edge technology. She too mentors ExxonMobil Engineering Executives on improving organizational and business performance through Human and Organizational Performance principles.

As an Award-Winning International Speaker, Owner of Reset Your Business and Life International, and Creator of The Unforgettable Engineer brand, Eryka helps female engineers attract the attention and respect they deserve in engineering by re-connecting with feminine values. The result is a happier engineer leading with femininity, grace, and presence.

Having mentored over 19,000 women leaders in London, Dubai, India, Canada, Silicon Valley, and the U.S., Eryka is committed to seeing women thrive and be more authentic in technical industries.

Eryka is the Amazon Bestselling Author of Fearless Visionaries: Tear The Veil which brings awareness to mental health challenges women suffer globally and offers a step-by-step plan to hit reset in your life and career with her book Own Your Life.
